TRUMBULL CIVIL SERVICE BOARD
APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT AND/OR EXAMINATION

Your application is a part of this examination. It must be filled out properly. Read the instructions and the announcement of the examination carefully. Answer all questions fully and accurately but concisely. Many applications are rejected or receive lower ratings because answers are incomplete or vague. Remember that your experience and training will be rated on the information you give on this form. All statements are subject to investigation and you may be disqualified at any stage of the examination process for misleading or false statements. Tentative acceptance of an application does not imply final approval. Notice to appear does not necessarily signify application has been finally accepted or that the applicant has been found to fully meet the minimum qualifications for the position sought. Immediate notice should be given to the Civil Service Board of any change in post office address occurring before or after the examination.
